

We have now reached our Goal and you can have something wonderful for yourself.

As you may know, Paul and I set out on a journey over 20 years ago, to follow a very strong call to take the Pounamu or greenstone of Aotearoa/New Zealand with sacred symbols carved into the pieces of stone by Paul, to the spirit keepers of the most ancient tribes on the planet. So far we have completed 10 of the 12 journeys set out for us by the Elder Ancestors. By Jan 2011 all 12 will be complete. It has transformed us and our lives and inspired many we have come in contact with over the years to follow their heart and path.

The urging to write it all down became too strong about 18 months ago to ignore any longer and so our first book has now been written.

"Set By the Ancients, A Journey of Trust, Love and Adventure"

It covers our coming together, how the symbols and places came to us and the first four journeys. It follows our highs and lows on all levels, how we have faced death as well as many moments of magic.

There are 140 images in the book, some of peoples and places that may never be seen again as the youth leave the villages never to return and the numbers left of the tribes are too small to regenerate and repopulate them...in other words within a couple of generations they will have all gone and their wisdom and knowledge of the planet, held for so long, with them.
